

This day, after Breakfast we take 25 minutes first flight to Pokhara, on arrival in Pokhara we further drive to our trekking starting point NayaPul for about half hrs, From here we trek by hilly ridges of Lumle/kande and walk about 20 minutes to Birethanti, a large and prosperous town. Beyond a pasture used by pony caravans, the trail reaches Sudame where we have Lunch. After lunch climb steadily up the side of the valley, reaching Hile at 1495m. near by Tikhedhunga. Along the way, various hamlets offer ample camping possibilities but if Ghorepani is the objective for the next day it is better to push to Tikhe Dhunga.

Day 04: Trek to Ghorepani (6/7hrs, 2848 m.) o/n in lodge +B+L+D:

From Tikhedhunga the trail crosses a stream (Bhurungdi Khola) on a suspension bridge to start the long steep climb to the large Magar village Ulleri at 2070m. Above the village where the trail climbs gently through pastures and cultivated fields. There are magnificent rhododendron and oak forest. Lunch spot in Nangethanti. Thanti is a Nepali word meaning "rest house". In the winter the trail can be covered with a snow. From Nangethanti about one hour walking to Ghorepani at 2848m. Arrive at the top of the Ghorepani pass and camp there. overnight in Ghorepani.

Day 05: Trek to Tadapani via Poon Hill (5/6 hrs, 2540m) o/n in lodge +B+L+D:

We will wake up early morning to hike up to the famed vantage point of Poon Hill excursion. You can hear the sounds of all tourists preparing for the pre-dawn assault on Poon Hill. The journey climb to Poon Hill (3210m.) takes around 45minutes. As the sun rises, the views are literally breathtaking, a wide Himalayan panorama stretching from Dhaulagiri 8167m. (the world's seventh highest peak) to Manaslu 8156m (the world's eighth highest peak) in the east, with the mighty Annapurna range in between them. Then we will return to our camp and time for breakfast. The first part is climbing along the ridges of the hills in pine and rhododendron forest to a top 3030 meters then descend to at a second pass also called Deurali. The steep descent becomes a gentle way to reaches Banthanti where we will stop for Lunch. From Banthanti the trail follows the stream down to a bridge where the trails start climbing to Tadapani (2540 meters) that offers a brief view of the mountains. Tadapani means, "Far water". The village water supply is a long distance; it takes porters more than an hour to fetch a load of water.

Day 06: Trek to Chhomrong (6-7hrs, 2020m) o/n in Lodge +B+L+D:

This day, after breakfast, our trail leads us to Landrung through oak forest, terraced fields, pleasant village. Then we moves down to Jhinudanda from here our trail ascends up to Chhomrong with the huge views of Annapurna South, Himchuli, Fishtail.

Day 07: Trekking to Dovan (2540m, 4-5 hrs) o/n in Guesthouse +B+L+D:

Leaving Chhomrong, the trail descends via a stone staircase and crosses the Chhomrong Khola on a swaying Suspension bridge. Then climb out of the side valley passing through deep forests of bamboo, rhododendron and oak. The portion of the day's trek follows another ascent to Kuldi (2470m). Descend a long, steep, slippery stone staircase into a deep bamboo and rhododendron forest to the village of Dovan.

Day 08: Trekking to Machhapuchhare Base Camp (3700m, 5-6 hrs) o/n in Guesthouse +B+L+D:

A trek of narrow Modi Khola valley brings you almost to the base of M.B.C. There's technically no such thing as 'Machhapuchhare Base Camp', since ascents of the mountains are prohibited. The mountain views are stupendous; the panorama includes Hiuchhuli, Annapurna ranges and the ever-changing Machhapuchhare. This area is called the Annapurna sanctuary since it is totally surrounded by mountains. A huge amphitheater enclosed by a solid wall of snow-capped peaks which include Annapurna I, Annapurna III and the fish tail spire of Machhapuchhare.

Day 09: Trek to Annapurna Base Camp (4130m, 2-3 hrs) o/n in Guesthouse +B+L+D:

The climb to Annapurna Base Camp takes under two hours. You descend a small ridge branching out from the mountain pass to mountainside with widespread terraced fields showcasing tranquil meadows and lush fertile farming land. As you reach Annapurna South Base Camp, witness awesome picturesque landscapes, majestic panoramic view of snow-capped mountainous peaks and varied Himalayan cultural settings tucked beneath the southern slopes of the Annapurna massive. Tremendous Annapurna Range stops your heart beat for a while; whole day without rest chill out around to explore ABC.

Day 10: Trekking to Bamboo (2340m, 5/6 hrs) o/n in Guesthouse +B+L+D:

Heading back down the valley is much easier. We will have some amazing glimpse of sunrise over Mt. Annapurna and surrounding ranges. Even if you do exploring in the morning, you will have no problem reaching Bamboo passing through Himalayan Hotel and Dovan. You trek gently ascend through bamboo forests with varieties of rhododendron and oak trees. Keep an eye out for troops of black-faced 'Langur' monkeys. At night you will find yourself in a guest house.

Day 11: Trekking to Jhinu Danda (1750m, 4/5hrs) o/n in Guesthouse +B+L+D:

Retrace our steps back down to apple-pie country. The trail goes steeply up to the Kuldi Ghar and now the trail is quite flat until you reach Sinuwa. You trek gradually descends to the Chhomrong Khola and you have to follow stone staircase for almost an hour to reach Chhomrong. The trail continues through rhododendron and bamboo forest with majestic mountains scenery, especially Mt. Machhapuchhare. An hour walk will take you to Jhinu Danda. You enjoy the natural hot spring and explore the area around.

Day 12: Trek to Nayapul and drive to Pokhara via Birethanti (5/6 hrs trek, 1 hrs drive) o/n in Hotel +B:

We begin your trail following gentle flat path passing through forests, rocks and terraces. After Kimche (1638m.) the trail descends through human settlements and terraces upto Seuli Bazaar. From here, the trail moves along the bank of Modi Khola to Birethanti. And short walk to Nayapul from here we drive to Pokhara.

Day 13: Drive back to Kathmandu o/n in Hotel +B:*Day 14: Departure +B:

Transfer to the international airport for your onward Destination.

What is included?

- Hotel with breakfast in Kathmandu and Pokhara
- Government licensed guide for sightseeing in Kathmandu valley
- Government licensed trekking guide and porters during trekking
- 3 meals a day during trekking (B, L, D)
- Pickup and drop from and to the international airports in Kathmandu
- Domestic airport tax
- Annapurna conservation fee

What is excluded?

- International Airfare
- Personal expenses and tips for staff
- Monument entrance fees during sightseeing in Kathmandu valley
- Travel insurance incase of emergency
- Extra transport or porter in case of emergency case
- Lunch and dinner in Kathmandu and Pokhara