Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu o/n in a hotel. (D)

Himalayan Leaders will pick you up at the international airport for your transfer to the hotel. As a welcome you will have a typical Nepalese dinner with some of the staff members. typical food coming up! And do not forget to try our typical Nepalese drink with great mood of cheers,

Day 2: Sightseeing in Kathmandu valley o/n in a hotel.(B)

After a good night and After breakfast, we will start with a half-day sightseeing tour of three of the most famous sightseeing spots: first, we visit Soyambhunath, which is a beautiful Buddhist monastery perched at the top of a hillock -a good viewpoint to see the whole Kathmandu city, then we drive to Pashupatinath Temple (National Hindu temple) & Boudha Natha (the biggest Buddhist monastery). These places are of interest because they were built up towards the 5th century, rich in their architecture and religious meanings. After all, visiting those historical heritages of great influence, we leave the rest of the day at leisure. With your interest, you can wander around the streets and shop full of hundreds of colorful shops.

Day 3: Sightseeing in Bhaktapur & Patan, o/n in a hotel.(B)

After breakfast we take off for a full-day interesting sightseeing tour of Patan, which is one of the ancient and biggest cities in Nepal, known for its beautiful handcrafted and architectural works and after a stop we go to Bhaktapur Durbar Squares which is the most famous devotee's city of the gods and goddesses. This city is exclusively rich for its own culture and traditional life.

Day 4: Transport to international airport in Kathmandu.(B)

Either we transfer you back to the international airport or you can resume your trip with one of the other travel blocks in our program, such as moving out to Chitwan National Park, rafting adventure and/or driving to Pokhara for a beautiful sightseeing of the Himalayan landscape and a beautiful lake. And all of these places are out in the surroundings of the Kathmandu valley.
